

APPLICATION FOR PHI SIGMA IOTA MERIT SCHOLARSHIP - 2012
Sigma Sigma Chapter; Rutgers, the State University

The annual Phi Sigma Iota Merit Scholarship is an endowed scholarship with the following criteria:

This scholarship is to be awarded to undergraduate members of Phi Sigma Iota based on merit (overall cumulative average, average in foreign languages taken at Rutgers, and level of study achieved). Priority will be given to current Phi Sigma Iota members (i.e., juniors and seniors), but second semester sophomores who may expect to qualify for membership in a subsequent semester will be considered, as will graduate students for summer study programs. Priority may be given to students who are applying for study abroad options offered through Rutgers; students whose target language is not included in the Rutgers study abroad programs will also be considered. In the selection process, preference will be given to students who have not previously had the opportunity to study abroad and have not been granted some other special Rutgers award for this purpose. Preference will also be given to those without extensive travel or living experience in the target country.

The application consists of: the present form; a brief essay; an official copy of the current Rutgers transcript; and two letters of recommendation from language faculty, at least one of which must address in detail the applicant's competency (written and oral) in the target language. All materials should be submitted to

Two faculty members from whom you have requested recommendations. Identify by name and language department. Specify which one(s) has been asked to evaluate your skills in the target language.

In a brief essay of approximately 250 words, explain your reasons for wishing to participate in a study abroad program. Your essay should not only address how you stand to benefit personally from a study abroad experience in relation to your academic course of study, but should reflect more generally on the value and place of language learning in today's world. (Please type/word process your essay on a separate sheet, and attach to this application.)

Note: If the faculty selection committee for the Phi Sigma Iota Merit Scholarship cannot identify the successful candidate on the basis of written materials, finalists may be invited to oral interviews. The Chapter reserves the right not to grant a scholarship in a given year should no candidates meet the committee's minimum requirements for selection.
