Bill to Co-Sponsor the TWES Annual African Royal Pride Banquet

Whereas, TWES, An Association of Africans and Friends of Africans (TWES) will be holding its Annual African Royal Pride Banquet on October 27, 2006 in the Rutgers Multi-Purpose Room; and

Whereas, TWES seeks to “educate the campus and its surrounding community about the issues affecting Africa and its people”; and

Whereas, the organization's event is open to all University students at a charge of $5 per student; and

Whereas, the event is being held in order to shed light on the African culture, while sharing and exposing Africa’s rich culture through a lecture, entertainment, and art exhibitions; and

Whereas, the event will feature traditional music, fashion, art, and performances; and

Whereas, TWES needs financial assistance in covering the cost of entertainment and decorations; therefore

Be it Hereby Enacted that the RCGA co-sponsors the event by allotting $200 to TWES, An Association of Africans and Friends of Africans to help cover costs for the event.
